

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	New City Gardener by Judith Adam	(Abe Books) Successful gardeners are made, not born. For a beginning gardener with a small city space or an experienced gardener with a large suburban lot, The New City Gardener provides all the practical skills and information necessary to create a beautiful garden in an urban environment. Your climate and soil conditions will determine what plants can adapt to your site, but The New City Gardener shows you how to dig in to improve your soil and create a garden that will not only survive, but thrive without extensive cultivation.
	Tough Plants - unkillable plants for every garden by Sharon Amos	(Abe Books) Sharon Amos is an author and freelance journalist specializing in gardening. Her previous books include Celebrations, Garden Wisdom, Pulbrook and Gould Flowers and Plants for Free.
	Water Gardens by David Archibald	(Abe Books) This gardener's guide provides practical advice on pond design and construction, management and maintenance, containers and the intriguing history of this increasingly popular backyard pursuit.
	Terrariums & Miniature Gardens by Kathryn Arthurs	(Abe Books) A Sunset Guide for terrariums and miniature gardens. With nice index of b&w photos; useful.
	Gardener's Hints & Tips by Antony Atha	(Abe Books) Gardening wisdom and advice, and a checklist of what to do and when.
	Tips for the Lazy Gardener by Antony Atha	(Abe Books) The perfect reference guide for those who lack the time or experience, but want to make the most of their garden. With 150 four-color photographs throughout, separate sections on roses, annuals, perennials, bulbs, vegetable and herb gardens, shrubs, a special calendar to use as a guide for planting, as well as tips on equipment, this book is an invaluable, one-volume reference.
	1001 All-Natural Secrets to a Pest-Free Property by Dr. Myles Bader	(Amazon) There are over 2 billion pesticides manufactured in the United States every year. In 2002, more than 3.2 million people suffered medically related side effects from the use of pesticides. By using the simple, tried and true solutions provided in 1001 All Natural Secrets to a Pest-Free Property, you can make a significant contribution to reducing the damage caused by pesticides and other poisons.
	500 Popular Annuals & Perennials by Loretta Barnard	(Abe Books) Virtually everything gardeners need to know about annuals and perennials comes together in this handsome, heavily illustrated book. Comprehensive advice focuses on planting, cultivation, and flowering times of plants, with suggestions for attention-catching color combinations. Profiles of plants are arranged alphabetically, with each entry presenting - Descriptions, Cultivation advice, Planting times - Flowering seasons, Climate information, including reference to a climate zone map...

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	500 Popular Roses for American Gardeners by Loretta Barnard	(Abe Books) A very informative book about roses. Great photos in this book.
	The First Book of Weeds by Barbara Beck	(Abe Books) Examines, in drawing and with useful data, weeds found in lawns and fields, on roadsides, and in gardens, describing their beautiful, edible, and useful aspects as well as their poisonous and medicinal effects.
	The Annual Garden by Jennifer Bennett	(Abe Books) Longtime gardening editor and writer Jennifer Bennett and photographer Turid Forsyth have combined their considerable skills to create "The Annual Garden", a welcome companion to Firefly Books' bestselling The Harrowsmith Perennial Garden. Acknowledging the traditional view of annuals as the garden's "poor relatives", the authors warmly endorse the qualities that these plants offer. Fast growth, variety, versatility, scent and sheer good looks, they conclude, make annuals ideal additions to every garden.
	Let's Make Potpourri! by Susan Biensch	(Susan Biensch) Companion to horticultural society workshop. Includes history of topic, plant list and role, recipes, suggested uses.
	Really Small Gardens: A Practical Guide to Gardening in a Truly Small Space by Jill Billington	(Abe Books) This guide aims to address the real challenges and restrictions of making a successful garden in a really small space. Photographs - all of small gardens - show what can be achieved in restricted areas. Practical guidance on initial planning and choices, ways of exploiting the space, and suggestions for evoking a particular atmosphere are included, as well as a directory of 150 key plants for some spaces.
	Hostas & Other Shade-loving Plants by Richard Bird	(Abe Books) Gardening book for shade plants.
	The Book of Potpourri by Penny Black	(Abe Books) Recipes and instructions on how to make wonderful potpourri samples.
	Rodale's All-New Encyclopedia of Organic Gardening by Fern M. Bradley	(Alibris) Whether one is an experienced gardener looking to go organic or a beginner who wants to create a healthy, eco-friendly garden space, Rodale's book contains the tips and techniques needed to produce beautiful flowers, top-quality herbs, and appetizing, wholesome fruits and vegetables. Explore the latest methods for cultivation without chemicals, discover the benefits of composting, and learn how to maintain an organic garden year-round.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Annual Flowers by John Bradshaw	No description available at this time.
	The Complete Book of Herbs: a practical guide by Lesley Bremness	(Abe Books) Revealing the enormous potential of herbs, this sourcebook includes information on planting, growing, and harvesting herbs, as well as the main uses of herbs. It also offers an exhaustive identification guide, recipes, ideas for gifts, and much more.
	Vita's Other World (Bio. of V. Sackville West) by Jane Brown	(Abe Books) In making Sissinghurst, Vita Sackville-West created one of the finest and most famous gardens in England and placed herself among the great gardeners of this century. This book traces Vita's development as a gardener, leading the reader through the past of her beloved Knole, her marriage, travels to Constantinople and Persia, her first garden at Long Barn and finally to Sissinghurst Castle where, with her husband Harold Nicolson, she designed and made a garden of outstanding beauty.
	Illustrated Guide to Gardening in Canada by Carroll Calkins	(Amazon) This 640 page book is jam packed with drawings, and information about growing and sustaining plants in Canada. The book is laid out in sections such as Trees, Shrubs & Vines, Roses (they have their own section!), Perennials, Annuals and Biennials, Tubers, Irises, Rock Plants, lilies, Water Plants, Herbs, Soil, House Plants, Green House Gardening, etc. The book is not packed with colour photos but every tree, shrub or plant is detailed meticulously with black and white drawings. I've found the drawings sufficient to identify plants using the book.
	The Healing Herbs by Michael Castleman	(Abe Books) Suddenly herbs and how-to herbals are popular again. But while other books tend to rehash traditional uses of herbs and old wives' tales, this book reviews world-wide scientific literature on which herbs really work and how to use them safely. 7 photographs; 100 illustrations.
No image	Containers by President's Choice	No information available at this time.
No image	Plantings by President's Choice	No description available at this time.
	Annuals by Carol Landa Christensen	No description available at this time.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
No image	Flower Arranging with Silk Flowers by Mary Claire	No description available at this time.
	Gardening in Containers by David Clark	No description available at this time.
	Planting a Small Garden by Phil Clayton	(Amazon) This work offers simple steps to gardening success, from the experts at the RHS. Follow RHS show-how and know-how for a garden that looks great all year round (whatever size it is). Inspirational tips and techniques on how to plant, creating perfect combinations, making the most of your space, selecting the right plant environment, getting the mix right and more guarantee success. Get perfect results: whether you're a green-fingered guru or a gardening novice.
	Plants in Pots by Andi Clevely	(Abe Books) This stylish and simple guide shows you how to make effective and changing plant displays in containers, and maintain them with ease.
	Climbing Gardens by Joan Clifton	(Abe Books) Gardening in the vertical plane can transform the dulllest plot, giving it vital style and structure; this gardening source book shows you how. Featuring planting ideas and practical advice, it explores the potential for all types of planting supports, from simple latticework and tension wiring to pergolas, metal frames and living sculptures. It explains how you can use them to create different garden styles and moods, preserve privacy, increase the feeling of space, focus the eye and add some exuberant colour.
	Potted Gardens by Rebecca Cole	(Amazon) Rebecca Cole--once an actress/activist and now the owner of the trend-setting Greenwich Village store Potted Gardens--introduces a whole new way to garden. Using any container--from the bed of a toy truck to a bedpan--and any kind of plant--from rose to weed--would-be gardeners can follow Rebecca's guidance and plant a bit of beauty in a corner of their homes or gardens.
	Paradise Found by Rebecca Cole	(Abe Books) In Paradise Found, Rebecca Cole presents simple solutions to gardening in small, difficult, or awkward spaces -- the reality that seems to face so many gardeners today. Whether it's a tiny terrace, an oddly shaped yard, or a location both shady and sunny, Rebecca helps gardeners overcome the limitations of their environments. She offers practical guidelines for placement, color, and form and she champions the use of hanging plants and containers to create beautiful, easy-to-maintain gardens.
	The Ontario Gardener by Trevor Cole	(Amazon) Author Trevor Cole, former curator of the Dominion Arboretum in Ottawa and veteran instructor of home landscaping courses, provides crucial information on hardiness (including a zone map), plant size, flowering time, and shade tolerance, while offering friendly and helpful advice based on nearly thirty five years of experience of gardening in Ontario. Information is presented in a clear and orderly manner, featuring illustrated instructions, garden plan layouts, suggested readings and 40 pages of colour photographs.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Gardening with Heirloom Seeds by Lynn Coulter	(Abe Books) Heirloom seeds are more than the promise of next summer's crookneck squash or jewel-colored zinnias. They're living antiques handed down from one generation to the next, a rich inheritance of flavor and beauty from long ago and, often, far away. They are sometimes better adapted to pests and harsh conditions than many modern varieties and often simply smell or taste better. Gardening with Heirloom Seeds serves as a resource for gardeners, cooks, and plant lovers of all levels of expertise who want to know more about finding, sharing, propagating...
	Indoor Plants by Jane/Graham Courtier/Clarke	(Abe Books) From its fully illustrated, meticulously detailed directories of indoor plants to its inspiring ideas for using plants to enhance any setting, "Indoor Plants" makes it easy to turn a window sill, a corner, or even a whole room, into a delightful garden spot.
	Jeff Cox's 100 Greatest Garden Ideas by Jeff Cox	(Abe Books) From the host of HGTV's "Grow It" comes a seasonal gardening guide that makes it easy to try great garden techniques anytime of the year. Ideas are color-coded by season for extra-easy access. 350 color illustrations. Tables & plant lists.
No image	The Essential Gardening Encyclopedia by Jessica Cox	No description available at this time.
No image	Great Gardens in the Shade by Harriet Cramer	Many beautiful photos.
	The Edible Flower Garden by Rosalind Creasy	(Abe Books) A comprehensive guide to selecting and growing flowers that can be used for cookery, both as garnishes and as ingredients. Over 90 color illustrations.
	The All Seasons Gardener by Mark Cullen	Rest of title is "Getting More from your Canadian Garden."
	A Greener Thumb by Mark Cullen	(Amazon) one of Canada's best-known gardeners demystifies the art of creating a garden--from laying out a landscaping plan in the spring to protecting plants from frost in the winter. Cullen has been talking to Canadian gardeners for years on radio and television call-in shows, not to mention on the floor of his family's Weall and Cullen nurseries. No surprise, then, that he understands how to give practical and easy-to-follow advice, such as: "Roses don't like to get their leaves wet. Drops of water on the leaves can cause burning and lead to black spot disease."

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Canadian Garden Design by Mark Cullen	(Abe Books) Designing your own garden is an exhilarating adventure in creative planning: starting with a vision and then expressing that vision with on-the-ground planting is one of the gardener's greatest joys. But translating dreams into reality can often seem a daunting task. How do you accommodate trellises, decks and colour schemes, not to mention favourite plants, while making the best use of your outdoor space? How do you create breathtaking visual effects without spending a fortune? Canadian Garden Design answers all these questions and more.
	The Real Dirt by Mark Cullen	(Amazon) The Real Dirt , by Mark Cullen and Lorraine Johnson, is exactly what it says it is: The Complete Guide to Backyard, Balcony and Apartment Composting. It is intelligent, readable, and very thorough.
	Potpourri Crafts by Dawn Cusick	(Abe Books) From rosebuds, lavender, cinnamon, and dozens of other herbs, spices, and flowers that make up a favorite potpourri, create lovely accents for the home. Includes 30 exquisite potpourri recipes, instructions for drying and preparing ingredients, and full-color pages of fragrant projects.
	Daylilies and How to Grow Them by Ben Arthur Davis	No description available at this time.
	Inside OUT: Relating Garden to House by Page Dickey	(Abe Books) House and garden ideally share a special relationship. Each is married to, extends from, and echoes the style of the other. It's easy enough to lose sight of this association and regard the garden as an isolated spot. But with a little awareness, a garden and its house can be merged into a harmonious whole.
	The Flower Garden by Helen Dillon	(Amazon) The pleasures and practicalities of making a flower garden are explained in this book. The author gives guidance on planning the garden and on good planting for colour, harmony and year-round interest. Detailed planting plans for different situations are included. Many unusual flowering plants are described as well as those that make the backbone of the flower garden. Care is covered with information on techniques and maintenance. A seasonal summary covers work to be done as well as the highlights of the flower garden through the year.
	50 High-Impact Low-Care Garden Plants by Tracy DiSabato-Aust	(Abe Books) No plant is perfect in every situation, but this book identifies 50 - perennials, shrubs, and trees - that come close. Each of the selections is a dynamic, beautiful choice for almost any garden, and each is nearly foolproof when it comes to care.
	Beautiful Roses by Bob Dolezal	(Google) A guide to selecting and growing roses discusses choosing and preparing a planting site, caring for roses, and controlling pests and diseases.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Plants for Small Places by Stephanie Donaldson	(Amazon) A lavish source of inspiration and practical solutions for the many gardeners who have limited space, with a full range of planting ideas, a detailed plant directory, and 300 gorgeous color photos. This beautifully illustrated book offers a wealth of ideas on how to turn even the tiniest, most unpromising spot into a place of beauty. There are abundant ideas and solutions for every imaginable space: paths, roof gardens, patios, balconies, and window sills; hanging baskets and containers; walls and other vertical spaces; as well as a whole range of conditions.
	Flowering Shrubs by Ken Druse	(ebay) Features detailed descriptions of more than 130 outstanding flowering shrubs, including recommended varieties and tips for design, color and companion planting. The book offers complete cultural information, advice on soil preparation, scores of tips and essential information on both new and old-fashioned favorites. A superb "plant portrait" section is also included — with every shrub explained and fully illustrated with many entries showing multiple photos to distinguish varieties.
	Making More Plants by Ken Druse	(Abe Books) For people who love gardens, propagation is gardening itself, the practice of growing whatever you want, whenever you want. Whether you crave healthy, vigorous plants, wish to grow new ones to share with friends, or hope to produce scores of them to fill your own beds and borders -- for free -- Making More Plants will help fulfill your most vivid garden dreams. Ken Druse presents innovative, practical techniques for expanding any plant collection, with more than 500 full-color photographs.
	Seaside Plants of the Gulf & Atlantic Coasts by Wilbur Duncan	No description available at this time.
	Out of the Stockpot by William J. Dunn	No description available at this time.
No image	Botanix Guide by Robert Dutton	No description available at this time.
No image	Botanix Guide, ninth edition by Robert Dutton	No description available at this time.
	500 Popular Garden Plants by Joy Eckermann	(Abe Books) Beautifully illustrated with full colour photographs.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Gardens To Go by Sydney Eddison	(Abe Books) A beautifully illustrated introduction to the art of container gardening explains how to design, coordinate, plant, and care for a container garden, with special tips on color and texture, informational sidebars, cultivation tips, sources for gardening supplies, a guide to plant hardiness zones, and two hundred full-color photographs.
	Rodale's Illustrated Encyclopedia: Gardening and Landscaping Techniques by Barbara W. Ellis	(Abe Books) Clear, easy-to-follow, step-by-step directions for gardening techniques, tips, recipes, and projects cover all aspects of chemical-free gardening.
	550 Home Landscaping Ideas by Catriona/Derek Erler/Fell	(Abe Books) Encompassing more than eighty design topics--including regional and international garden styles, color and plant themes, accents, and seasonal gardens--this inspirational sourcebook features 550 practical and creative landscaping ideas.
	Everything Sold in Garden Centres by Steve Ettlinger	(Amazon) Part I covers garden supplies; Part II tools, equipment and accessories. Soil mixes, gardening tools, pesticides, ornamental plaster statues of saints--each receives the same reasoned consideration in frank, easily understandable terms. Every item inspires entries detailing how to recognize and use it and how much to pay for it. Yet what can be most confusing for gardeners, particularly novices, is the welter of brand and common names often employed for gardening merchandise--and Ettlinger helps clear it up by listing synonymous terms wherever applicable.
	Gardening through the Year: monthly guide by Hazel Evans	(Goodreads) Very helpful in keeping track of your garden.
	The Tranquil Garden by Kay Fairfax	(Abe Books) A guide to creating a calm oasis outdoors, whether in a tiny backyard or a spacious garden. Feature spreads show how to incorporate garden ideas from other cultures, whether a Japanese rock garden or a Mediterranean-style fountain. Each section concentrates on one of the broad tenets of successful gardening and encourages the reader to seek inspiration from a wide range of sources. A final section looks at the practicalities of making what you want and still leaving you enough time to enjoy it.
	Garden Style - Ideas & Projects by Jerri/Tim Farris/Himsell	(Abe Books) This book welcomes in the Martha Stewart crowd, but it gives them something Martha simply will never understand-practicality. The books will be filled with ingeniously simple decorating ideas and projects-projects that are stylish, functional, and most of all practical.
	Secrets of Monet's Garden by Derek Fell	(Abe Books) Monet designed his garden as a painter's subject, using plants like brushstrokes. Premier garden writer and photographer Derek Fell helps the home gardener recreate some of Giverny's beauty through an illuminating examination of the painter's planting philosophies. With hundreds of full-color photographs, and reproductions, Fell sheds light on Monet's use of color, structure, favorite flowers; and more.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	The Essential Gardener by Derek Fell	(Abe Books) Planning, designing, planting, and watching the garden grow gives one a sense of accomplishment and a feeling of creating a thing of beauty. Here is indispensable information for the gardener, whether novice or expert, on the most popular and important plants for the garden.
	Xenia Field's Book of Roses by Xenia Field	No description available at this time.
	Canadian Wildflowers by Agnes Fitzgibbon	(hpcanpub.mcmaster.ca) Canadian Wild Flowers is prized for Agnes FitzGibbon's splendid illustrations, which evoke Ontario woodlands and meadows.
	Get Growing by Frankie Flowers	(Amazon) Have you ever looked enviously at a neighbour's garden and wished you had a green thumb? Have you ever gone to the garden centre full of enthusiasm, only to find yourself confused and defeated? Have you ever wished that somehow gardening could just be, well, easy? If so, it's time to Get Growing with Frankie Flowers. In 352 pages packed with inspiring yet instructional photos, Frankie coaches gardeners of all levels through the basics of getting a garden growing.
	Gaining Ground, Dramatic Landscaping by Maureen Gilmer	(Abe Books) Gardening guru Maureen Gilmer offers design ideas that translate well into any garden for every budget--even a postage-stamp backyard or terrace can become an urban oasis of water and color. Amazing before-and-after shots prove that garden fantasies can--and have--become reality.
	Landscaping with Ornamental Grasses by Fiona Gilsean	(Abe Books) a complete design and reference book that explores the history of grasses in their natural settings, and describes how to integrate them in a variety of climatic situations shady woodland to desert, Asian-style gardens to naturalistic landscapes, family-friendly yards to small patios. Step-by-step directions, over 250 beautiful photos, ideas for stylish indoor container and craft projects, and retail and mail-order sources make this new edition a must for anyone passionate about expanding their gardening repertoire.
No image	Thyme "Thyme Began in a Garden" by Kathleen Gips	No description available at this time.
	Botanica's Pocket Roses by William Grant	(Amazon) All the species and varieties of roses are carefully and lovingly categorized in this comprehensive guide. This inexhaustible reference is compiled by Botanica's expert editors and stands alongside the equally impressive Annuals & Perennials and Trees & Shrubs. Over 2,500 color photographs capture the beauty of the over 2,000 varieties listed. You are sure to find the perfect rose for any site, season, or soil condition.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	The New Flower Gardener by Pippa Greenwood	(Abe Books) Flowers are the first love of most gardeners. From sunflowers as big as dinner plates to delicate bleeding hearts to showstopping red-hot pokers, The New Flower Gardener: An Inspiring Guide to the Most Captivating of Flowering Plants is a razzle-dazzle gallery of blooms that even the newest gardener will want to grow. Whether you're just starting out or have an established garden that could use some pizzazz, author Pippa Greenwood has written a practical guide on how to choose, decorate with, and grow an astonishing flower garden.
	How to Feng Shui Your Garden by Gill Hale	No description available at this time.
	Tropical Blossoms of the Caribbean by Dorothy & Bob Hargreaves	(Abe Books) Over one hundred full color pictures of the Flowers and Flowering Trees.
	The Makers of Heavenly Roses by Jack Harkness	No description available at this time. About the Author (Goodreads): Jack Leigh Harkness (1918-1994) was a rose breeder who improved roses' healthy by introducing genes from various wild rose species.
	Modern Roses by Peter Harkness	No description available at this time.
	Favorite Annuals by Marjorie Harris	(Abe Books) All are easy to grow and maintain and suit a wide range of growing conditions. Marjorie's friendly, straight-up kind of writing and Paddy Wales' gorgeous full-color photos make this series a sure-fire springtime seller.
	Favorite Garden Tips by Marjorie Harris	(Abe Books) Written for the ecologically friendly and economically minded gardener who wants proven, practical advice, Marjorie Harris' Favorite Garden Tips is terrific for both beginners and veteran gardeners.
	Favorite Perennials by Marjorie Harris	No description available at this time.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Favorite Shade Plants by Marjorie Harris	No description available at this time.
	Pocket Gardening by Marjorie Harris	(Abe Books) In Marjorie Harris' trademark breezy, chatty style, Pocket Gardening takes on the challenge of small-space gardening. She shows how easy it is to make a garden on an apartment balcony, or in a dusty alley beside the house, or in containers and window boxes. She explains how to garden with mirrors in long, narrow back-yards and how to avoid the boring "green wallpaper" look in small suburban front gardens. She talks about the all-important issue of privacy and how to deal with ugly garages (and ugly neighbors), as well as many other topics.
	Seasons of my Garden by Marjorie Harris	(marjorieHarris.com) How to make a garden on a difficult site. Here is Harris's own garden in all four seasons. She shows how she did it, so can you. Under a weeping will, a site full of roots from other people's tree (including the neighbor's weeping willow), spring flood, summer drought. The photographs by Andreas Trauttmansdorff are dazzling. But this is way beyond a coffee table book, it's practical. New gardeners will find the style comforting and helpful, experienced gardeners will get inspiration for new plant combinations.
	The Canadian Gardener by Marjorie Harris	(MarjorieHarris.com) With over 200 pages of stunning, full-colour photographs, as well as special sections on Canadian hardiness zones, planting tips, garden types and scores of suggestions and solutions, The Canadian Gardener is your special guide to the garden you've always wanted.
	Encyclopedia of Fruits, Vegetables & Herbs by John Heinerman	(Amazon) Heinerman explained the healing powers of over 100 different kinds fruits, vegetables, & herbs. There's too much back-sliding of taking today's medicines. If you want to save your money of seeing doctors.
	The Rose Expert by Dr. D.G. Hessayon	(Abe Books) Reach for the world's most popular book on roses, newly revised and expanded, with over 3 million copies sold in earlier editions. You'll find 150 new varieties and ideas for care printed for the first time in any book. Yet the basics still remain: a guided tour through the seasons, an encyclopedic description of 388 popular roses; advice on purchase selections, planting locations, and pest and disease control; growing instructions; and an array of useful information.
	Horticulture as Therapy by Mitchell L. Hewson	(Amazon) The author has a real depth of understanding of how to use horticulture as a therapy and it shows. There are few means as effective as horticulture in relieving stress, in getting difficult students interesting in nature, in putting people back in touch with themselves and the world. There is a very useful section here too on resources. There are also many other good sections of "how to" things ...
	Lois Hole's Perennial Favorites by Lois Hole	(Abe Books) Lois Hole makes gardening easy, successful, and enjoyable, profiling 100 of her favorite perennial plants chosen for their beauty and hardiness. With common sense and practical wisdom, she tells home-owners all they need to know to easily transform any patch of earth into a spectacular garden they can enjoy year after year. 430+ color photos.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Lois Hole's Rose Favorites by Lois/Jill Hole/Fallis	(Abe Books) In this book, Lois Hole describes her 148 favorite varieties and offers practical advice on what roses to grow for fragrance, color and splendor. She also includes information on the soil, light, climate and moisture conditions required for success.
	Herb Gardening by Patricia Hopkinson	(Abe Books) Everything you need to know to design, plant, and cultivate an herb garden anywhere in North America--compiled by Cornell Plantations, U. of California Botanical Garden, and Matthaei Botanical Gardens, in consultation with five other botanic gardens and arboreta. This book will help you to understand a basic gardening philosophy, select plants for you herb garden, design an herb garden that is not only useful and productive, but attractive as well, with photographs and diagrams of successful examples.
	Creating Japanese Gardens by Alvin Horton	(Abe Books) You can have a garden with the sophisticated sense of design and naturalistic look of the Japanese style, using plants and materials available in North America. This book provides practical details for selecting and setting stones and plants, creating water features, and working with special accents to create a Japanese effect in your garden.
	Orchids by I. D. James	(Abe Books) Here's the definitive introduction to growing orchids successfully. Author Jim James was recently awarded a Gold Medal at the 13th World Orchid Conference for his contribution to orchids. In this book, he parts with his four decades of experience and wisdom to help readers grow orchids in their homes, whether on a windowsill or under lights. The particular cultural needs of those orchids commonly grown are dealt with in detail. Color photographs together with diagrams carefully support the text.
	100 Easy to Grow Native Plants by Lorraine Johnson	(Abe Books) "100 Easy-to-grow Native Plants" is the essential reference guide to native plants for gardeners throughout America.
	1001 Hints and Tips for your Garden by Andrew Jones	(Abe Books) Whether you want to plant a tree, choose a climber, grow fragrant flowers, or learn how to apply the various types of fertilizer, this comprehensive A-to-Z book will help you get the job done. And because topics are cross-referenced, you will find it easy to use. Inside are samplers of varieties of the best-loved plants - flowers, vegetables, trees, and shrubs - and a list of tulips that will take turns blooming all spring long.
	Eating for Good Health by Denis Kennedy	(Abe Books) This book shows you how to assess every aspect of your present diet and demonstrates clearly what is desirable in that diet ... And what is not.
	Hydroponics for the Home Gardener by Stewart Kenyon	(Abe Books) A literate, well-organized text....easy enough for the beginner to understand....a very useful purchase. -Library Journal Hydroponic gardening is the most productive and environmentally sound way to grow all varieties of plants. Hydroponics for the Home Gardener introduces you to hydroponic gardening, tells you how to buy or build a system, and discusses nutrients, pH levels, climate, propagation, pollination, outdoor hydroponics, and common problems.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Japanese Gardens in a Weekend by Robert Ketchell	No description available at this time.
	Wildflowers & Special Gardens by Gerald M. Knox	(Google) Describes the characteristics and care requirements of a variety of wildflowers, shows how to create container, rock, herb, desert, and water gardens, and discusses drying and arranging flowers.
	Rodale's Illustrated Encyclopedia of Herbs by Claire Kowalchik	(Abe Books) How to grow herbs, design herb gardens, cook with herbs, make herb dyes and herb medicines--it's all here. This extensively researched A-to-Z encyclopedia describes more than 150 herbs and their uses.
	1000 Beautiful House Plants & How to Grow Them by Jack Kramer	No description available at this time.
	Butterfly Whisperer by Brenda & Ben Kulon	(Volumes Direct) A beautifully illustrated coffee table type book full of information on how to attract butterflies to your garden with stunning original photography by the author Brenda Kulon. Clear and concise, her writing will appeal to a broad audience of gardeners, naturalists, butterfly enthusiasts and backyard wildlife-watchers.
	The Garden in Autumn by Allen Lacy	(Alibris) The Garden in Autumn explores the rich possibilities of a neglected season that in much of the United States is the very best of seasons for gardening.
	All about Roses by Susan Lang	(Amazon) Whether you're eyeing a hybrid tea you remember from your mother's garden, or one of the new easy-care landscaping varieties, this book makes it easy to add the unmatched beauty of roses to your garden.
	101 Townhouse Garden Designs by Joel M. Lerner	(Google) Suggests designs suitable for vegetable or flower gardens, sunning, pets, children, storage, privacy, entertaining, hot tubs, and pools, and lists useful plants.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Herbs: the Complete Gardeners Guide by Patrick Lima	(Abe Books) When first published, Herbs was extremely well received and set a new standard of excellence for gardening books. Turid Forsyth's photographs and watercolor illustrations capture all the beauty and detail of these fascinating and practical plants, and Patrick Lima's highly entertaining text is chock-full of clear information, helpful advice and wry anecdotes.
	The Weekend Gardener by Susanna Longley	(Abe Books) If you long for a great-looking garden but want to spend more time enjoying it rather than looking after it, The Weekend Gardener has the solutions. More than 50 quick-and-easy, low-maintenance projects show you how to turn your gardening dreams into reality. The book is packed with creative ideas, from brightening up your walls and window ledges and creating colourful beds and borders, to making a new lawn and laying out simple paths.
	Macoboy's Roses by Stirling Macoboy	(Google) The best-selling original edition grew out of years of research and travel by the late Stirling Macoboy, and featured his personal selection of roses accompanied by his engaging writing style and photographs of around the world.
	Caring for Perennials by Janet Macunovich	(Abe Books) You can have a spectacular perennial garden with less work than you might imagine - an average of one hour per month per 100 square feet. The secret, according to master gardener Janet Macunovich, is organization - prioritizing, planning, and record-keeping.
	Garden Rooms by Julie Martens	(Abe Books) The extension of indoor living to the out-of-doors is a remarkable trend. As people enjoy more outdoor leisure time, they want garden areas for dining, relaxing, and entertaining. Garden Rooms demonstrates how to create such garden retreats.
	A History of Canadian Gardening by Carol Martin	(Abe Books) Beginning with the extensive cornfields tended by the Huron before the Europeans arrived, this book describes more than 400 years of gardening in Canada -- including the adventures of early botanical explorers, the Hudson's Bay Company's attempts to grow vegetables in the north, the difficulties faced by pioneer gardeners, the City Beautiful Movement at the turn of the twentieth century, early school gardens and garden clubs, botanical gardens across the country, the back-to-the-land movement of the 1970s, the recent interest in heritage seeds, ...
	Amazing Annuals by Marjorie Mason Hogue	(Abe Books) Amazing Annuals is the long-awaited guide to the best of these new plants: more than 300 container and garden plants including the newest annuals, the latest bulbs, complete instructions for growing plants from seed to cutting and much more.
	Bulbs: the four seasons by Brian Mathew	(Abe Books) This illustrated text provides a source of reference for planting ideas, covering a range of bulbs and their cultivation. It offers guidance to over 100 popular species with planting schemes for all year-round colour. Daffodils, naturalized in drifts of grass, encapsulate the essence of spring, tall flag irises rise majestically above the summer border, the delicate pink and white hues of cyclamen signal the beginning of autumn and the great carpets of snowdrops provide a welcome relief from the wintry gloom.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Gardener to Gardener Almanac & Pest Control Primer by Vicki Mattern	(Abe Books) Provides advice for planning, planting, and enjoying a garden, and contains lists of tasks based on months and temperature zones.
	Rodale's Successful Organic Garden - Fruits & Berries by Susan McClure	(Abe Books) Taking the guesswork out of planting, growing, and maintaining popular fruit and nut crops, an organic gardening guide provides a colorful encyclopedia section that features fifty-six out-of-the-ordinary, edible items.
	Rodale's Successful Organic Gardening: Companion Planting by Susan McClure	(Abe Books) Radishes to repel squash bugs? Basil to make tomatoes even tastier? These are just a few of the great gardening secrets you'll find in Rodale's Successful Organic Gardening: Companion Planting. This easy-to-use guide will help you understand the fact and folklore of how and why companion planting works. You'll discover the different ways companion plants can repel pests, attract beneficial insects, and encourage or discourage the growth of other plants.
No image	Water Gardens by Jim McCrae	No description available at this time.
No image	The Canadian Rose Annual by Kenneth McFarquhar	2007 edition
	Gardening in Small Spaces by Peter McHoy	No description available at this time.
	Practical Small Gardening by Peter McHoy	No description available at this time.
	Successful Pruning by Peter McHoy	(Abe Books) Easy to follow projects demonstrate how you can successfully prune with confidence.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	The Small Garden Book by Peter McHoy	(Abe Books) 500 full-color photos and illustrations.
	Rodale's Successful Organic Gardening - Herbs by Patricia S. Michalak	(Abe Books) Gardeners everywhere love herbs for the wonderful flavors they add to food, the beauty they lend to the garden, and for their many uses in crafts and as home remedies. This hands-on guide shows how anyone can successfully grow a wide range of more than 90 herbs in the back yard. Features a full-color encyclopedia section. 300 color photographs; 50 illustrations.
	Rodale's Successful Organic Gardening: Vegetables by Patricia S. Michalak	(Abe Books) From choosing a site for the garden to harvesting and storing the produce, this book has all the information needed to successfully grow vegetables in the backyard garden without chemicals. The first part of the book gives beginners information on creating a productive garden, while the second offers an encyclopedic guide to over 90 popular and unusual food crops. 300 color photos; 50 illustrations.
	Rodale's Successful Organic Gardening: Controlling Pests and Diseases by Patricia S. Michalak	(Abe Books) Preventing and controlling pests and diseases is an important part of good garden care. This guide demonstrates how to correctly identify problems and offers safe yet effective options, including how to attract and identify beneficial insects as natural pest controllers. 50 illustrations/250 color plates.
	Roses for the Scented Room by Barbara Milo Orbach	(Abe Books) Whether you love roses for their delicate petals, astonishing range of colors, or sweet, seductive scent, this book will inspire you to fill every room in your house with a lovely array of edibles, decorations, and perfumed bouquets. A fascinating history of roses is included—from the ancient Romans to World War II, roses have been a most beloved flower. There's a wealth of practical advice here, from choosing and maintaining healthy plants to proper cutting technique.
No image	The Complete Book of Houseplants by B. Mitchell	No description available at this time.
	100 Plants for Pots & Containers by Mary Moody	(Abe Books) Each title in this series presents 100 of the best plants to suit a specific need, providing detailed guidance on the cultivation of each variety. This volume describes a wide range of attractive varieties that are ideally suited to pots, troughs, sinks and other containers.
	The Captured Harvest by Terence Moore	(Alibris) A guide to creating lasting decorative objects from dried flowers and a variety of other natural materials. The author combines stylish and individual design with an accessible teaching style that lets the reader in on the trade secrets. Emphasis is on subtle colour and texture combinations.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Wetland Plants Ontario by Steven G. Newmaster	(Abe Books) Wetlands--lakes, rivers, marshes, swamps, bogs and fens--are an integral part of the Ontario landscape. They slow and sustain local water flow, and they contribute significantly to the diversity of life and ecosystems by providing habitat for plants, mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians, fish and countless invertebrates. This handy field guide features detailed plant species descriptions combined with precise drawings and excellent colour photographs. Includes edible plants, native uses of plants, a colour photo guide to flowers, over 450 photographs.
	1001 Container Plants by Miep Nijhuis	(Abe Books) The information on each includes the Latin name, a brief description, best position and care, and other relevant information translated into symbols for easy reference. Readers who want color throughout the year will find plenty of longer-blooming plants, flowering bulbs for early spring, and non-deciduous or berrying plants for autumn and winter. It's the perfect volume for everyone whose taste for gardening is bigger than his garden.
No image	Ontario Judging and Exhibiting Standards by OHA	No description available at this time.
No image	Trillium - 100th Anniversary Edition by OHA	No description available at this time.
	Roses for Canadian Gardens by Robert Osborne	No description available at this time.
	Fabulous Roses Organically by Maggie Oster	(Amazon) The exquisite beauty of roses have made them garden favorites since ancient times. Over the years, however, some roses have developed a reputation for being demanding, problem-prone plants. Fortunately for rose lovers, that's all changing. With so many "old rose" nurseries starting up, and with the remarkable successes of breeding programs that focus on tough, self-reliant landscape roses, you can forget the image of roses as fussy hypochondriacs that demand constant intensive care. Today you can combine the best of old and new roses...
	Reflections of the Spirit - Japanese Gardens by Maggie Oster	No description available at this time.
	Concise Encyclopedia of Garden Flowers by David Papworth	No description available at this time.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Designing a Garden by Allen Paterson	(Goodreads) Stressing the concept that coherence is the key to garden design, Paterson invites us to indulge our need for beauty and to explore the creative rewards that linger tantalizingly just beyond our backdoors.
No image	Le Guide de Jardinage (French) by Andrew Pennington	No description available at this time.
No image	The Planting Book by Andrew Pennington	No description available at this time.
	Garden Design by Barty Phillips	No book description available at this time. Barty Phillips is a British author and broadcaster.
	Perennials: the Definitive Reference by Roger Phillips	(Abe Books) More than ten years in the making, Perennials is the most comprehensive guide available to these popular plants. It includes descriptions of over 2,500 types of perennials, each variety described in detail and illustrated with a handsome color photograph.
	The Book of Roses by Roger Phillips	(Google) 1,400 varieties is illustrated with a color photo and with descriptions of origin, characteristics and growing conditions. Includes a list of U.S. suppliers. (Besides being practical, it's just a pretty book to look at!)
	Organic Gardening - 300 Super Tomato Tips by Barbara Pleasant	No description available at this time.
	The Tree Doctor by Dan & Erin Prendergast	(Amazon) The perfect resource for experienced and novice tree owners alike. If you are fortunate enough to live on property that includes trees, The Tree Doctor is the ideal manual for care and maintenance. This is a comprehensive volume that includes information on tree identification, tips regarding what makes a good city tree, how to analyse soil, proper planting and pruning techniques, how to manage both young and mature trees, basic treatment for insect and disease prevention, how to get the most value out of your trees, and much more.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Canadian Gardening's Vegetable Gardening by Liz Primeau	No description available at this time.
No image	Canadian Gardening's Container Gardening by Liz Primeau	No description available at this time.
	Canadian Gardening's Creating a Garden by Liz Primeau	(Abe Books) Whether your outdoor space is large or small, a new garden or an existing one, this book can guide you through all the stages-from planning and design to planting and maintenance. Nine major garden styles are spotlighted with complete plant lists, architectural features and suggested accessories.
	City Gardens by Liz Primeau	(Abe Books) This wonderful book is designed to inspire and inform gardeners to create large and small gardens that suit their lifestyles.
	Carrots Love Tomatoes by Louise Riotte	(Abe Books) Carrots Love Tomatoes is a detailed, A-to-Z compilation that is informative--and even entertaining at times. It deals with what to grow with what plant and, equally important, what not to grow together.
No image	The Canadian Rose Annual by George C. Roberts	1978 edition
	Perennial Gardening by Michael Ruggiero	No description available at this time.
	Views: Washington by Greg Saffell	(Abe Books) Color photographs of Washington State by area photographer Chris Jacobson.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	The Art of Arranging Flowers by Shozo Sato	Rest of title is "A Complete Guide to Japanese Ikebana."
	Success with Feng Shui for your Garden by Gunther Sator	No description available at this time.
	Climbing Roses by Stephen Scanniello and Tanya Baynard	(Alibris) No flower is more popular than the rose, and none can match the color, beauty, and drama that climbing roses bring to a garden. This guide catalogs 65 beautiful rose varieties that thrive in the varied soil and climate conditions of North America. It is full of suggestions on how to cultivate and train the roses. 90 full-color photos.
	The Front Garden - New Approaches by Mary Riley Smith	(Abe Books) Mary Riley Smith, a landscape designer who has often dealt with poorly planned and underused front properties, has filled this book with creative ways to make your own front garden beautiful and functional. She shows how to design paths, driveways, and parking areas and how to camouflage unattractive but necessary structures. For privacy, she describes the different virtues of fences, clipped hedges, and loose, flowing hedgerows.
	Water Gardens for your Garden by Carol Spier	No description available at this time.
	Houseplant Basics by David Squire	(Abe Books) A house is just not a home without a lush selection of plants. Most houseplants don't demand much time or attention, and they can look attractive for years...when treated properly. If you love the idea of showing off a healthy, flourishing indoor garden (like the ones pictured here), then these are the basics you must know for cultivating happy plants. To get the most from them, it's important to understand how similar species live in the wild, and to meet their compost, lighting, humidity, and temperature needs in both winter and summer.
	The Complete Guide to using Colour in your Garden by David Squire	(Abe Books) This is an informative and practical book packed with advice on growing more than 500 varieties of garden plants arranged according to color. Detailed growing instructions accompany each plant including vital information on cultivation, propagation, height and spread. 16 beautifully illustrated garden plans show to mix and match plants to create a beautiful color scheme in your garden.
	Form & Foliage Guide to Planting by Jennifer Stackhouse	(Abe Books) This beautiful, evocative book is a must-have for every gardener. Init you will find details of over 200 plants that provide bold, architectural form, foundation and contrast in the garden, through texture, foliage and growth habit. This essential gardening companion presents over 250 plant entries, each featuring descriptions and important cultivation information, accompanied by a glorious full page photograph and other detail shots.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
No image	The Canadian Rose Annual by Doreen Stanton	2006 edition
	Garden Features & Ornament by David Stevens	(Abe Books) This volume is a sourcebook of styles, materials and practical advice, providing information on what you need to choose, design and construct the framework and main features of your garden. Simply organized, it provides detailed descriptions of each feature or material, suggestions for combining different elements, and symbols that indicate cost, durability and ease of use.
	Martha Stewart's Gardening Month by Month by Martha Stewart	(Martha Moments Blogspot) Gardening Month by Month is the quintessential Martha Stewart book: a large, coffee-table sized format with full-colour imagery of the grounds at Turkey Hill. There are recipes and illustrated instructions, as well as informative how-tos that are humanized by Martha's personal garden journal entries. Already, Martha's lifestyle concept of incorporating several areas of content (cooking, decorating, gardening, crafting) into one beautifully-written, gorgeously-illustrated volume was apparent.
	Creative and Colourful Containers by Graham/Claire Strong/Phoenix	(Amazon) Practical and imaginative ideas for pots, window boxes and hanging baskets you can grow.
	Classic Garden Plans by David Stuart	(Abe Books) For any gardener who is unsure of what to grow or how to put plants together in coherent planting schemes, this book provides answers. Many of the garden plans and plantings included are simplified versions of those created by great gardeners such as Vita Sackville-West, Margery Fish, and Piet Oudolf. The author's extensive knowledge of period plants, and how they were put together to look beautiful, has enabled him to re-create historical classics, like the Renaissance parterre or the Monet water garden, from contemporary planting lists and plans.
	Wild about Herbs by Roger Tabor	No description available at this time.
	Taylor's Guide to Bulbs by Norman Taylor	(Abe Books) The most comprehensive guide available, featuring an encyclopedia of 300 bulbs. Illustrated with more than 450 color photographs and 100 black-and-white drawings. Includes tips on selecting the right place and specific information on growing bulbs in your region.
	Space & Color in Japanese Flower Arrangement by Kasumi Teshigawara	No description available at this time.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	The Complete Book of Shrubs by Kim Tripp	(Abe Books) Step-by-Step guide to planting and cultivating shrubs.
	The Step-by-step Art of Flower Arranging by Ming Veevers-Carter	(Abe Books) This manual, plus stand, is specially designed to be used in two directions, one way for fresh floral arrangements, the other for dried flower creations. It outlines materials and equipment required, is illustrated with step-by-step diagrams, and gives instructions for displays for all occasions.
	The Country Diary Book of Creating a Butterfly Garden by E.J.M. Warren	(Book Depository.com) Tells how to plan a butterfly garden, lists plants that attract butterflies, and identifies British and American species.
	The Naturalized Garden: More Petals with Less Labour by Stephen Westcott-Gratton	No book description available at this time. Stephen Westcott-Gratton is Canadian Gardening magazine's editor-at-large, author of several books and numerous magazine articles.
	The Blooming Great Gardening Book by Steve Whysall	(Abe Books) Practical plant lists, inspiring insights, intelligent design tips, and plenty of down-to-earth advice on how to make your garden colorful, fragrant simply lovely all year round. The Blooming Great Gardening Book contains all this and more. It is an invitation to embark on an adventure with nature that starts right in your own backyard.
	The Garden Color Book by Paul Williams	(Abe Books) The Garden Color Book includes over 600 photographs of individual plants— displayed horizontally in swatches by color—that let you flip back and forth, mixing and matching until you find the perfect color scheme. By showing what color blossoms a bulb or shrub will have when in bloom, this indispensable gardening reference allows you to imagine how a summer plot might look planted with a sea of flame red penstemon accented by some sky blue salvias or a spring border of lime green euphorbia.
	Creative Climbers by Paul Williams	(Amazon) Paul Williams brings new life to vertical gardening, offering ingenious planting designs and clever ideas for structures and supports. Vigorous roses twisting up an apple tree, an arbor hung with succulent clusters of cherry tomatoes, and a teepee of antique gardening tools entwined with clematis are just a few of the striking ideas he has designed especially for this book. He demonstrates that the immense variety of climbers is equaled only by the range of structures upon which they may be grown.
	The Book of Garden Plans by Andrew Wilson	(Abe Books) Good design is the key to a successful garden, but designing a garden can be an overwhelming undertaking. The Book of Garden Plans changes all that by gathering together in one place 150 of the best designs for gardens of almost every imaginable type. Whether you are looking to create a brand new garden or redesign an existing one that has grown tired, this collection of ready-made structural plans by many of today's most celebrated and innovative garden designers will be an unparalleled reference.

Image	Title and Author	Synopsis
	Hydroponics: Indoor Horticulture by Jeffrey Winterborne	(Abe Books) An educational, in-depth, up-to-date, indoor horticultural growers guide that covers all principles of indoor hydroponic horticulture and gardening. Examines, explores, dissects, and presents a fully comprehensive step-by-step growers guide, relating to all and every aspect of indoor hydroponic horticulture, with complete chapters on plant biology, propagation, hydroponic systems, nutrients, oxygen, carbon dioxide enrichment, pH, biological pest control, fungi/disease, cuttings/ clones, pruning/ training, breeding, harvesting, equipment, grow rooms, ...
	Pruning Trees, Shrubs & Vines by xxx xxx	(Abe Books) Pruning Trees, Shrubs & Vines offers all the advice you need to start pruning fruit and shade trees, evergreens, grape vines, berry bushes, ornamental shrubs and vines, hedges, and roses like a professional. You'll learn how, where, and when to prune as well as what tools to use. For quick reference you'll find a pruning timetable, a condensed plant-by-plant pruning guide, and an A-to-Z glossary of pruning terms.
	The Big Book of Gardening Skills by xxx xxx	(Abe Books) For beginners & advanced gardeners, this comprehensive, generously illustrated volume is the complete guide to growing flowers, fruits, herbs, vegetables, lawns, & shrubs. Clearly organized by topic with added charts, tables, & over 450 illustrations to help you plan, plant, & maintain beautiful, healthy, & productive gardens, this book can be read from cover to cover or by topics.
No image	The Complete Garden Guide by xxx xxx	No description available at this time.
No image	The Gardening Year by xxx xxx	No description available at this time.
No image	Water Wise Gardens by xxx xxx	No description available at this time.
	Flowers of the Wild: Ontario and the Great Lakes Region by Zike Zichmanis	(Amazon) This book has been carefully put together and gives a great synopsis of native wild flowers in the Great Lakes with excellent descriptions and photos. If you are a naturalist or botanist, I cannot recommend this book highly enough; it is simply awesome!